

EMMA WEBSTER
SHE/HER/HERS

e_webster@ku.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D.	The University of Kansas, English Literature	Projected May 2027
MA	Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, English Literature	May 2022
BA	McKendree University, English Literature and Writing Minored in Philosophy	May 2018

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

The University of Kansas Graduate Teaching Assistant, English Department	August 2022 – present
Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Children’s Creative Writing Camp Teacher	Summer 2022
Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Graduate Teaching Assistant, English Department	August 2020 – May 2022

SERVICE

University of Kansas Student Association of Graduates in English Accessibility and Sustainability Committee	2022 – present
Fundraising Committee	2023 – 2024
First-Year Liaison	2022-2023
First- and Second-Year English Department Curriculum Designer	Summer 2023
Southern Illinois University Edwardsville First-Year Writing Committee	2020 – 2022

AWARDS

The Dr. Anne Marie Turner Award University of Kansas English Department	2024
The Kenneth Rockwell Award University of Kansas English Department	2023, 2024

PUBLICATIONS

Webster, Emma. Feminine Faculties and Faults: Exploring the Male Appropriation of Hysteria in Nineteenth Century American Literature, 2022.

RECENT AND UPCOMING CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

“Yes, I Know the Author:” Charles Brockden Brown’s Multiple and Retroactive Implied Audiences.” University of Kansas Invitational Roundtable Presentation. 14-16 November 2023.

“Dreadful Origins: The Penny Dreadful’s Influence on Contemporary Pop Culture Monsters.” The Hall Center for the Humanities at the University of Kansas. 25 October 2023.

“Curses and Conflict: Fantastical Depictions of Disability in LambCat's ‘Cursed Princess Club.’” University of Florida Graduate Comics Organization Annual Conference. 15 April 2023.